WRIT PETITION No.22012 OF 2005

Dt: 07.10.2005

Between:

Puppala Kondala Rao

.. Petitioner

AND

The Government of Andhra Pradesh

Rep. by its Secretary,

Social Welfare (LTR-2) Department,

Secretariat Buildings, Hyderabad

And others

.. Respondents

ORDER:

The petitioner possesses certain extents of agricultural lands in Sarabhavaram Village of Devipatnam Mandal, East Godavari District. The Special Deputy Collector, the 3rd respondent, took up proceedings under the A.P. Scheduled Areas Land Transfer Regulation 1 of 1959 read with Regulation 1 of 1970, against him in L.T.R.P.No.195 of 2004. Through order dated, 30.12.2004, he rejected the complaint. Aggrieved thereby, the 6th respondent filed C.M.A.No.1 of 2005, before the 2nd respondent. The C.M.A. was allowed on 02.05.2005 and eviction of the petitioner was ordered. The petitioner filed a revision before the 1st respondent together with an application for stay. His grievance is that no orders have been passed in the application for stay, and in the meanwhile, the respondents 5 and 6 are taking steps to dispossess him.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Social Welfare.

The Regulations provide for a revision against an order passed by an appellate authority. The petitioner availed such a remedy. He has also filed an application for stay. The revision is said to have been presented on 05.09.2005. The 1st respondent is conferred with the power to grant interim orders. If the application for interim orders is kept pending indefinitely, there is every likelihood of the petitioner being dispossessed, and if that happens nothing remains to be decided in the revision.

For the foregoing reasons, the writ petition is disposed of directing that the order in C.M.A., shall remain suspended till the disposal of the revision by the 1st respondent.
